simply Redeemed...
"Let the redeemed of the LORD tell their story." -Psalm 107:2 NIV
Mt. Calvary Baptist Church Women's Ministry

MOUNT CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH
608 NORTH HORNERS LANE
ROCKVILLE, MD 20850
Women of Mt. Calvary,

To God be the glory….GREAT things He has done and is doing. Truly as we have seen and witnessed in our own lives and the lives of the sisters around us, the Simply Redeemed in our midst are the amazingly remarkable women of God of all ages from all walks of life and with all kinds of stories about the Lord has done in our lives. We have just finished a wonderful women’s conference that was a spiritual success and if we have learned no other lesson from that gathering it is that we need to keep on telling our story!

Every sister has a story to tell; a story about what God has done in you…. and through you….. because of you and even in spite of you….so tell your story. Don’t let the devil make you ashamed of your story because of the details of your destiny in the making. Remember it is not how you start, but how you end of that truly matters. This is why the Word of God in Psalm 107:2 admonishes and reminds us – Let the redeemed of the Lord say so! If you claim Jesus as Lord, then you have been redeemed, bought with a price, cleared with the payments of Jesus’ life; recovered from a life of sin and shame therefore you have the eternal right to SAY SO! Tell your story because your story may very well be the catalyst to another sister’s redemption; it may be the lynchpin that helps another woman hold on until she can see her way through to victory.

On this Women’s Day 2012, celebrate your sisters, celebrate yourselves and celebrate your God. You may not be where you want to be, but thank God you are not where you used to be. You have grown even from where you were yesterday to how the Lord has blessed you to see today. Share a part of yourself with someone else and open your heart to receive what another sister may have to share with you. It may just be the blessing that you have been looking for. We serve an amazingly powerful God who is not just a very present help in trouble, He is a very present Savior for our every need and desire. So, let the redeemed of the Lord say Amen, Alleluia, thank you Jesus, God be praised ~ and tell it like you feel it to honor and glory of Almighty God.

Worshipping Him with My Witness,

Rev. Dr. Lora F. Hargrove

Women’s Day Litany

Drawn from Psalm 107:1-9 - New Living Translation (NLT)

Leader: Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love never runs out! Lord you redeem us with your everlasting love and power.

People: Lord, you take all the broken and missing pieces in our lives and put them together again. Lord, we are victorious in You!

Leader: Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story. We cried out to the Lord in our trouble, and He delivered us from our distress; He satisfied our thirst and filled our hungry with good things. Lord, we declare that we are redeemed and we open the door for you to move on our behalf.

People: We shall forever be thankful and sing praises to You for your marvelous deeds, mercy and grace.

Leader: Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story. Oh how we thank you Lord, you have freed us to live for you and to show the world your love as we love each other.

People: Lord, we affirm the truth of your Holy Word and speak your promises in our lives. We will tell of your faithfulness through all generations of your unconditional love and your amazing grace.

Leader: Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story. We thank you Lord for deliverance; the thankfulness of the Lord shall continually be on our lips.

All: Dear Jesus, we thank you for keeping us in our valleys and redeeming our souls and our lives. We are the redeemed of the Lord, and we will tell our story to bless and encourage someone and we give You all the Glory and Praise. - AMEN!

Give thanks to the L ORD, for he is good! His faithful love endures forever. Has the L ORD redeemed you? Then speak out! Tell others he has redeemed you from your enemies. For he has gathered the exiles from many lands, from east and west, from north and south. Some wandered in the wilderness, lost and homeless. Hungry and thirsty, they nearly died. “LORD, help!” they cried in their trouble, and he rescued them from their distress. He led them straight to safety, to a city where they could live. Let them praise the L ORD for his great love and for the wonderful things he has done for them. For he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things. Psalm 107:1-9 (NLT)

Acceptance
Ephesians 1:3 – 7

We are a church family of acceptance, welcoming all people to come and be a part of the family of God. We honor the Spirit of Christ, active in every believer, and accept all individuals as instruments of God’s love.

Acceptance starts with Jesus Christ, and it is the road map for accepting our Christian brothers and sisters. It is not based on the "Like Me" syndrome: we accept our Christian brothers and sisters as they are, and it is Christ who will transform us into how he wants us to be.

To the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He hath made us accepted in the Beloved. (Ephesians 1:6KJV)

Acceptance. It’s a beautiful word, one that speaks deeply to our hearts. Acceptance is one of the greatest blessings that God gives to His children, and so it’s important for us to understand the nature of God’s acceptance and then to rejoice in it.

What is it to be accepted by God? The Greek word used in the above Bible verse is charitoo, which roughly translates “to make graceful”. To really understand what that means, you first have to go to the definition of the root word charis, which means “that which affords joy, pleasure, delight, sweetness, charm, loveliness”. Next, you have to see that we are charitoo, made accepted, “in the beloved,” that is, in Christ. Putting it all together, the verse means that God looks at us and it gives Him joy, pleasure, & delight because He sees the charm and loveliness of His Beloved Son, of Jesus, in us. That is absolutely dazzling to me, realizing that God has joy when He looks at me (at me!), because of Christ.

Excerpts from “The Evidence Bible” by Bridge-Logos Publishers

How to Witness to Family Members (by Ray Comfort):

Here’s some advice that may save you a great deal of grief. As a new Christian, I did almost irreparable damage by acting like a wild bull in a crystal showroom. I bullied my mom, my dad, and many of my friends into making a “decision for Christ.” I was sincere, zealous, loving, kind, and stupid. I didn’t understand that salvation doesn’t come through making a “decision,” but through repentance, and repentance is God-given (2 Timothy 2:25). The Bible teaches that no one can come to the Son unless the Father “draws” him (John 6:44). If you are able to get a “decision”, but the person has no conviction of sin, you will almost certainly end up with a stillborn on your hands.

In my “zeal without knowledge” I actually inoculated the very ones I was so desperately trying to reach. There is nothing more important to you than the salvation of your loved ones, and you don’t want to blow it. If you do, you may find that you don’t have a second chance. Fervently pray for them, thanking God for their salvation. Let them see your faith. Let them feel your kindness, your genuine love, and your gentleness. Buy gifts for no reason. Do chores when you are not asked to. Go the extra mile. Put yourself in their position. You know that you have found everlasting life—death has lost its sting! Your joy is unspeakable. But as far as they are concerned, you’ve been brainwashed and have become part of a weird sect. So your loving actions will speak more loudly than ten thousand eloquent sermons.

For this reason, you should avoid verbal confrontation until you have knowledge that will guide your zeal. Pray for wisdom and sensitivity to God’s timing. You may have only one shot, so make it count. Keep your cool. If you don’t, you may end up with a lifetime of regret. Believe me, it is better to hear a loved one or a close friend say, “Tell me about your faith in Jesus Christ”, rather than you saying, “Sit down, I want to talk to you”. Continue to persevere in prayer for them, that God would open their eyes to the truth.

The Evangelism Ministry Team Meetings are open to all. Our next meeting will be May 24, 2012.
FROM THE EVANGELISM MINISTRY

The Evangelism Ministry is providing Gospel tracts to the congregation. We ask that you read them for yourselves, give them to others, and also leave them in various places where others will see them. A list of ideal places to leave Gospel tracts is included as an insert to your bulletin. This is your opportunity to be a witness for Christ and share the Gospel. The tracts are available at the entrance to the sanctuary and in the lobby of the LGFLC.

Some Ideas Where to Leave Tracts:

- At pay phones
- In shopping carts
- In clothes pockets in stores
- In letters to loved ones
- With a generous tip
- On seats in restaurant lobbies
- With fast-food employees, cashiers, flight attendants, cab drivers, and gas station workers
- In restrooms
- At rest areas
- On ATM machines and bank counters
- In envelopes with bill payments
- In elevators
- On hotel dressers for the maid
- On ice machines
- On newspaper racks
- In waiting rooms of doctors' offices and hospitals
- On seats at airports, subways, and bus stations
- In plane seat pockets
- Inside magazines
- In cabs
- In Laundromats

MINISTER:
Why do we give?

CONGREGATION:
We give because God commands us. Malachi 3:10 states that we are to bring the full tithe into God’s storehouse.

MINISTER:
Why do we give?

CONGREGATION:
We give because God said in Luke 6:38, to give and He would give back to us a more abundant blessing.

MINISTER:
Why do we give?

CONGREGATION:
We give because 2 Corinthians 9:7 states that God loves a cheerful giver.

ALL: Thank you Lord, for the privilege of giving. We are excited about paying the tithe and giving the offering. We know that you are faithful to your promises. Therefore, we trust you in faith to do what you have said. AMEN!
